

Home Learning Tasks

Horrible History!

Choose six or more of the activities to complete at home.

Create your own Tudor house! This could be 2D or 3D. Think carefully about the Tudor features.

Research and learn about one of the famous landmarks in London. Display this in your home learning book to show your friends.

Create a portrait of King Henry VIII, any way you like!

In science, we will be learning about plants. Grow something from seeds at home. Perhaps you could grow something to eat! Write a plant diary as it grows.

Create a 'Great Fire of London' picture, whichever way you like! Paint, technology, collage, drawing, 3D sculpture...

Create a fact file about one of Henry VIII's wives by researching some facts about her. You could include some pictures or drawings!

Write a diary about everything you did within a weekend. Make sure you write it in chronological order!

Dear diary...

Visit a Tudor building in Gloucester and take photos of it. Can you label the features? Email them or bring the photos into school to share.

We are learning about relationships in PSHE. Write a list for 'how to be a good friend' or 'how to resolve an argument with a friend'

Create a portrait of YOU pretending to be from the Tudor period! How could you make yourself look like a Tudor?
